Tips for Reading Together

Children learn best when learning is fun.

- Talk about the title and the picture on the cover.
- Identify the letter pattern ng in the title and talk about the sound it makes when you read it.
- Look at the ng and ck words on page 4. Say each word and then say the sounds in each word (e.g. sing, s-i-ng; shock, sh-o-ck).
- Read the story and find the words with ng and ck.
- Do the fun activities at the end of the book.

Children enjoy re-reading stories and this helps to build their confidence.

Have fun!

After you have read the story, find the ten musical notes in the pictures.

The main sound practised in this book is 'ng' as in sang. The other sound practised is 'ck' as in rock.

“It is a Sing Song,” said Dad.

“Let’s go to the Sing Song,” said Dad.

“Yes, let’s go along to it,”
said Mum.

They went to the Sing Song.

They met Wilf and Wilma.

Wilf and Wilma sang a song.
They had fun singing it.

The bell on the bus...

Kipper had a song to sing.

Mum sang it with him.

Biff and Chip sang a song.

It was a sad song.

Dad sang a song.

It went on and on.

Dad sang and sang.

Dad won the Sing Song.

Talk about the story

Who did the family meet at the Sing Song?

What song did Kipper sing?

Why were Biff and Chip surprised that Dad won?

What do you like to sing?

Spot the difference

Find the five differences in the two pictures of Dad.

Read with Biff, Chip and Kipper offers two important pathways to learning to read. First Stories have been specially written to provide practice in reading everyday language, and the Phonics stories help children practise reading by decoding sounds in words, as they learn to do in school.
