

Prayers for MY LOVED ONES

Bedtime Prayers for Little Ones

Dear Lord,

Of all the moms I could have had,
my mom is the best. She brings me soup when I'm sick and tickles me to make me laugh. Yesterday she taught me how to make a peanut butter and jelly sandwich and then we took it to the park and had a picnic. Thank you God for the mom who's perfect for me.

Amen.

Dear God,

My Dad is so much fun. He taught me how to ride my bike and swim. He's great at fixing things. When a wheel fell off my skateboard he put it back on so fast! He leads the prayer we say at dinner to thank you Jesus for the food we eat. Even dessert! Thank you for my super-great Dad.

Amen.

Dear Jesus,

Thank you for my little brother. My Mommy says he is teaching me to be patient because I have to wait while he gets fed and dressed before it's my turn. He follows me around and pulls my hair. Mom says he'll grow out of it soon with your help. Even though I'm patient I can hardly wait till he's old enough to play hide and seek with me. It's my favorite game. I love my little brother.

Amen.

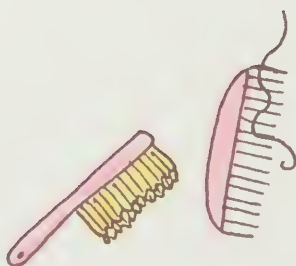

Dear Lord,

My big sister bosses me around but I have to admit she is very smart. She taught me how to braid my hair and she can pick up all ten jacks in one swoop! She also lets me sit next to her in church every single Sunday. Thank you for my big sister.

Amen.

Dear God,

My Grandma and Grandpa said I am a gift from you. They smile at me all the time and kiss me and hug me and tell me funny stories from the olden days. They take me to the beach and we build sand castles together. Grandpa buys me ice cream every time we go even though Grandma sometimes says no. Grandpa really likes ice cream. Thank you, Jesus, for the greatest Grandparents of all.

Amen.
