NURSERY RHYME Mini-Unit

No one knows the true origin of Mother Goose nursery rhymes. Some people think they were political statements, while others feel the verses are just what they seem to be, little rhymes created by "just plain folks" to entertain and educate little children. Whatever the truth may be, generations of children and their parents have loved to repeat them.

Directions for worksheets:

Pages 2-5

These pages can be reproduced on tag or cardstock to create nursery rhyme cards for the teacher to use with her students. OR...the pages may be reproduced on regular paper, cut apart, and stapled together to make little books for the students to color and take home to share with parents.

Pages 6-14

Directions are printed at the top of each of these pages.

Pages 15-16

Reproduce these pages on tag or cardstock. The cards can be cut apart and used as a "matching puzzle" by individual children. OR...use the cards along with the game-board on the inside back cover as a small group activity with an aide or volunteer helper.

Back cover:

Each player will need a square of colored paper to use as a marker. Player draws a card. If he/she can name the verse, move one square on the board. If he/she can name the verse and recite it, move two spaces. The first player to reach Mother Goose's house is the winner.

Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a tuffet,
Eating curds and whey;
There came a big spider
And sat down beside her,
And frightened Miss Muffet away.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall;
All the King's horses, and all the King's men
Cannot put Humpty Dumpty
together again.

Little Boy Blue,
Come blow your horn,
The sheep's in the meadow,
The cow's in the corn;
But where is the boy
Who looks after the sheep?

He's under a haystack,
Fast asleep.
Will you wake him?
No, not I,
For if I do,
He's sure to cry.

Mother Goose Nursery Rhymes

Jack and Jill went up the hill
To fetch a pail of water;
Jack fell down and broke his crown,
And Jill came tumbling after.

Up Jack got, and home did trot,
As fast as he could caper,
And went to bed to mend his head
With vinegar and brown paper.

fold

Wee Willie Winkie runs through
the town,
Upstairs and downstairs, in his
nightgown;
Rapping at the window, crying
through the lock,
"Are the children in their beds?
Now it's eight o'clock."

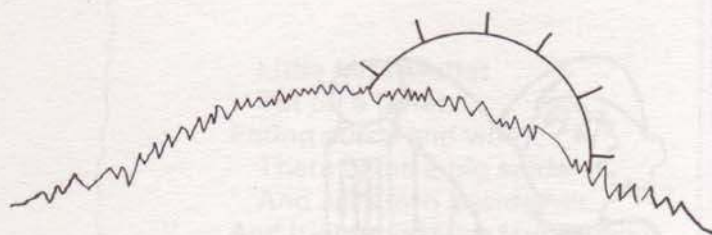

Old Mother Goose,
When she wanted to wander,
Would ride through the air
On a very fine gander.

fold

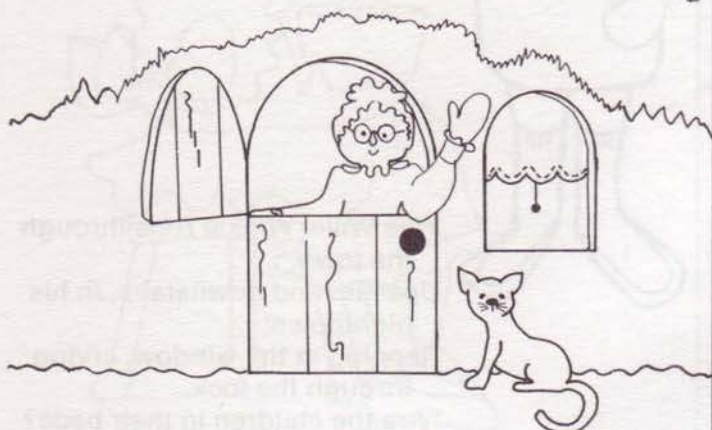

Old King Cole
Was a merry old soul,
And a merry old soul was he;
He called for his pipe,
And called for his bowl,
And he called for his fiddlers
three!

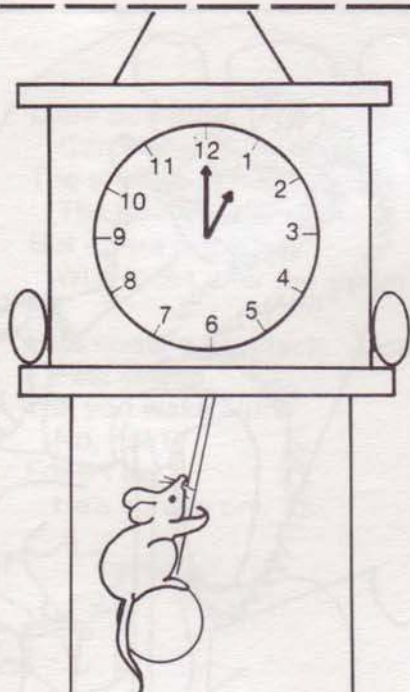

There was an old woman
Lived under a hill;
And if she's not gone,
She lives there still.

fold

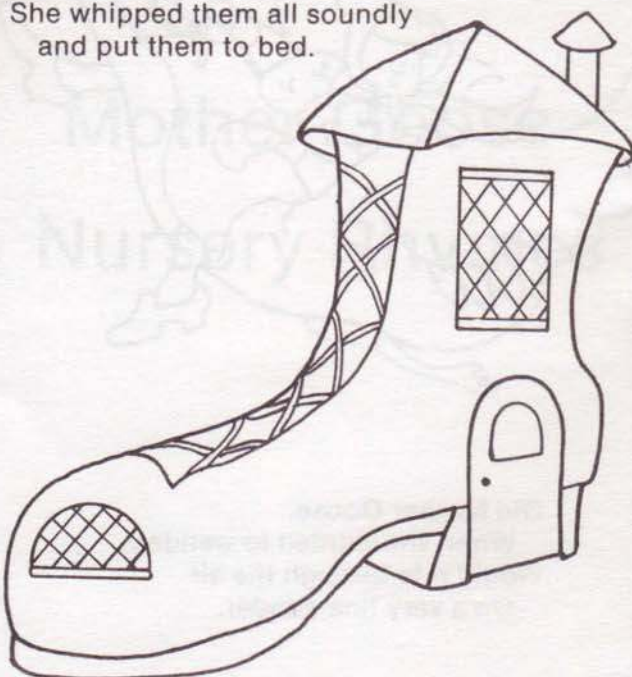

Dickery, dickery, dare,
The pig flew up in the air;
The man in brown soon brought
him down,
Dickery, dickery, dare.

fold

Hickory, dickory, dock,
The mouse ran up the clock.
The clock struck one,
The mouse ran down,
Hickory, dickory, dock.

There was an old woman who lived in a shoe.
She had so many children she didn't know what to do.
She gave them some broth
without any bread.
She whipped them all soundly
and put them to bed.

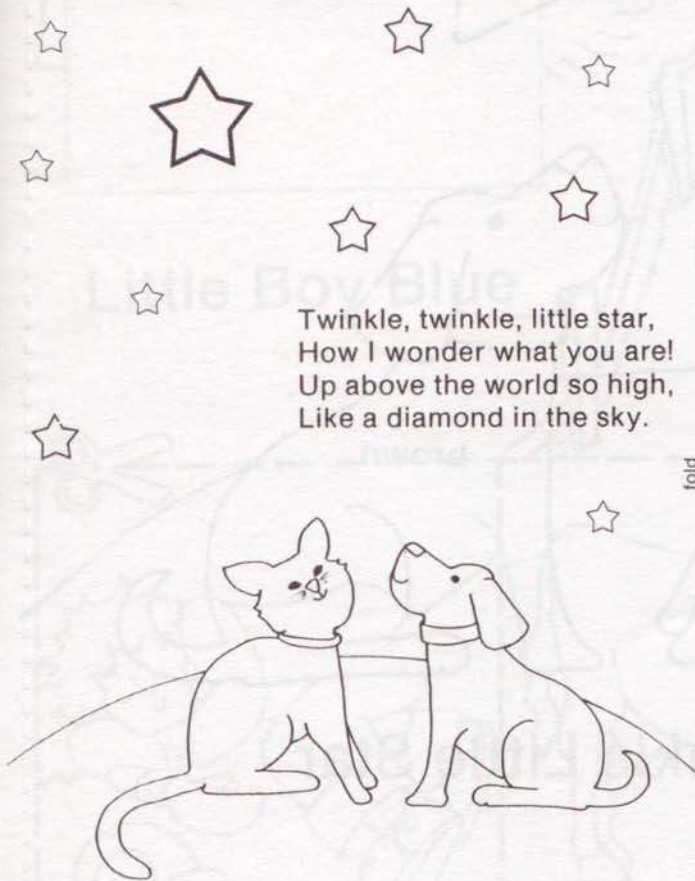

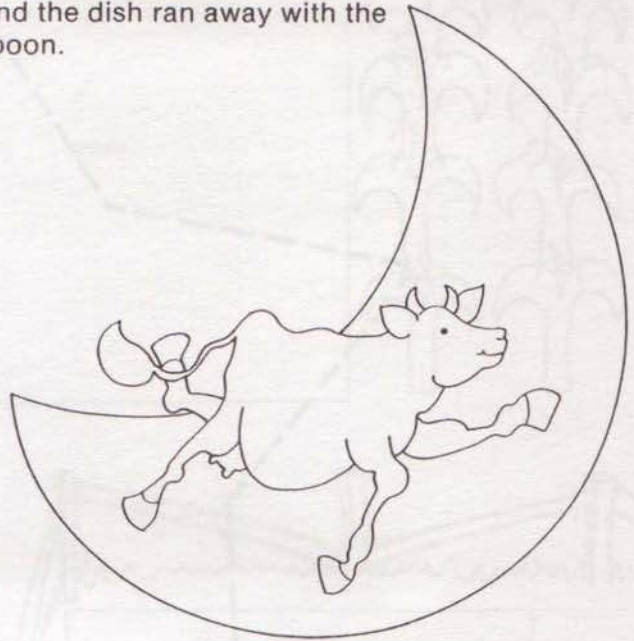

Little Jack Horner
Sat in the corner,
Eating his Christmas pie:
He put in his thumb,
And pulled out a plum,
And said, "What a good boy am I!"

fold

Hey diddle diddle,
The cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon;
The little dog laughed
To see such sport,
And the dish ran away with the spoon.

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder what you are!
Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky.

fold

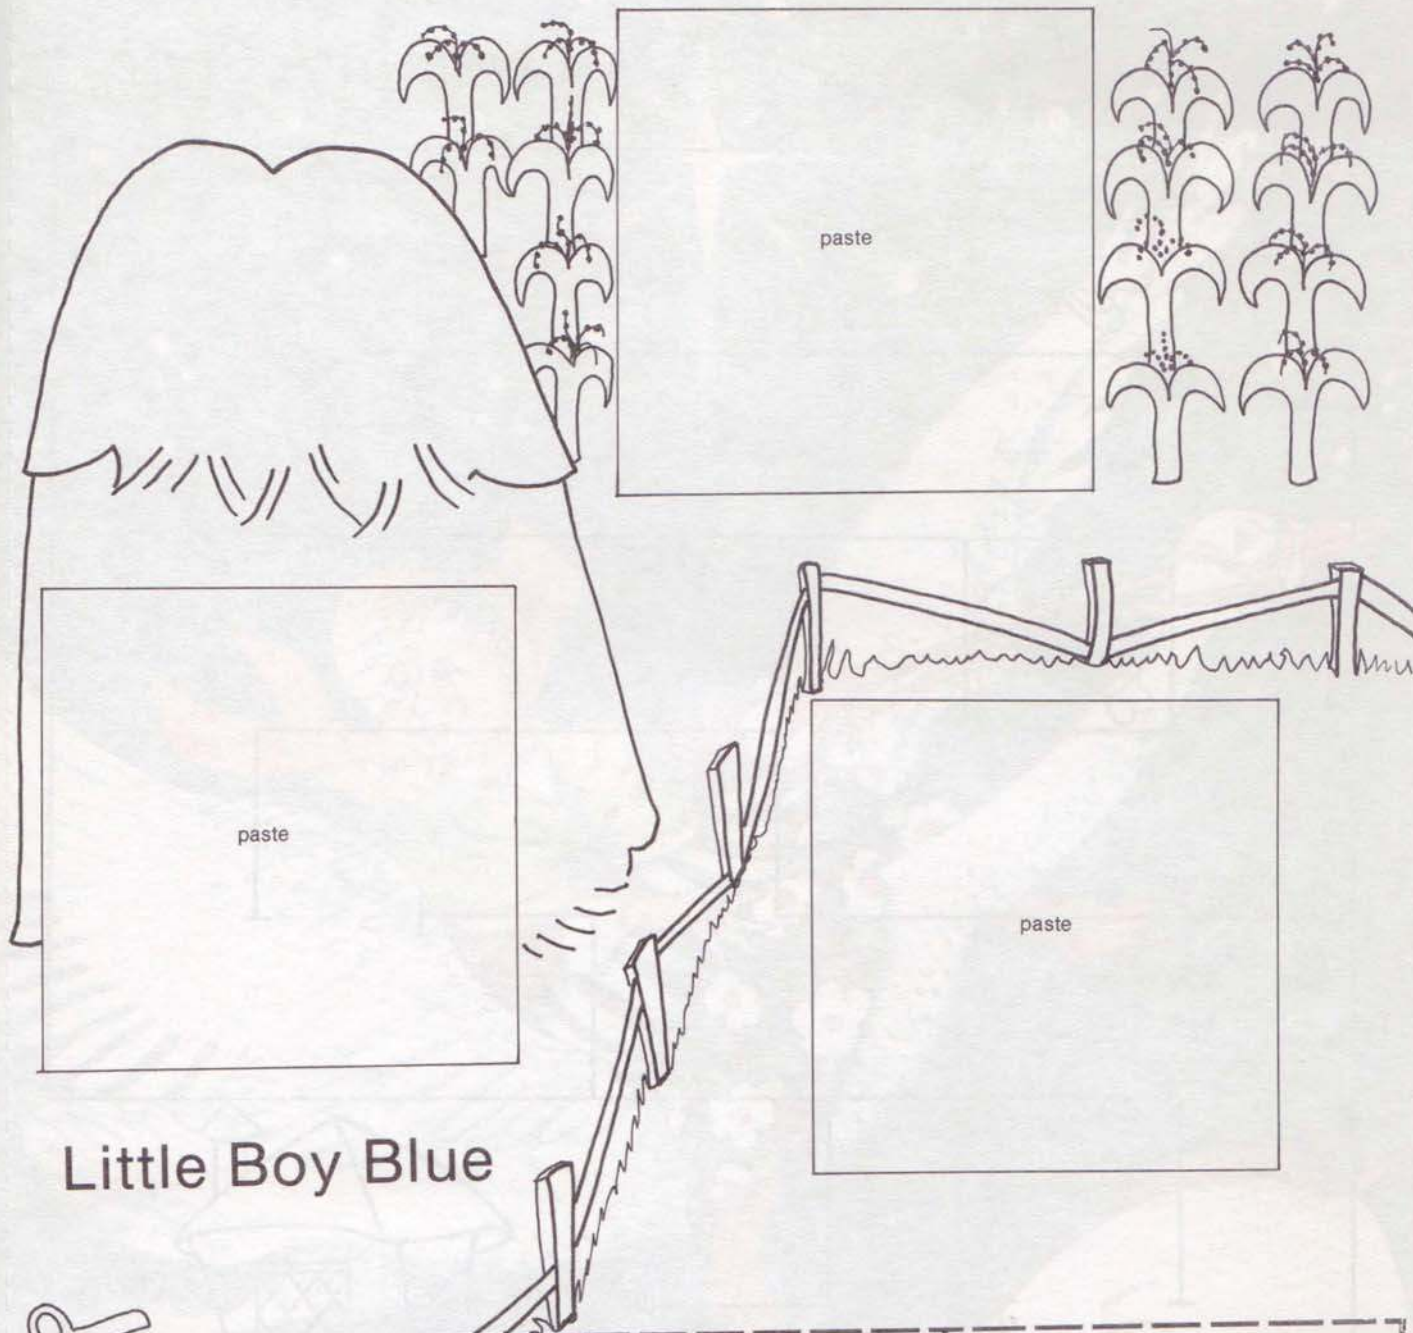

Jack be nimble, Jack be quick,
Jack jump over the candlestick.

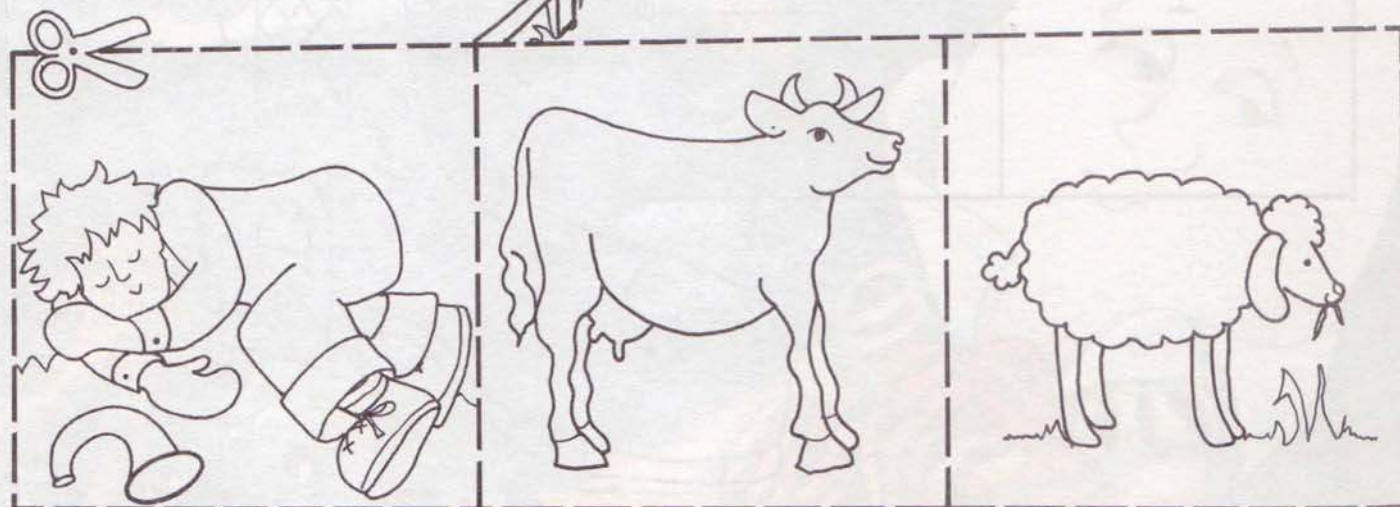

Teacher: Children trace the star and color the picture.

Teacher: Children cut out the characters and paste them in the correct positions.

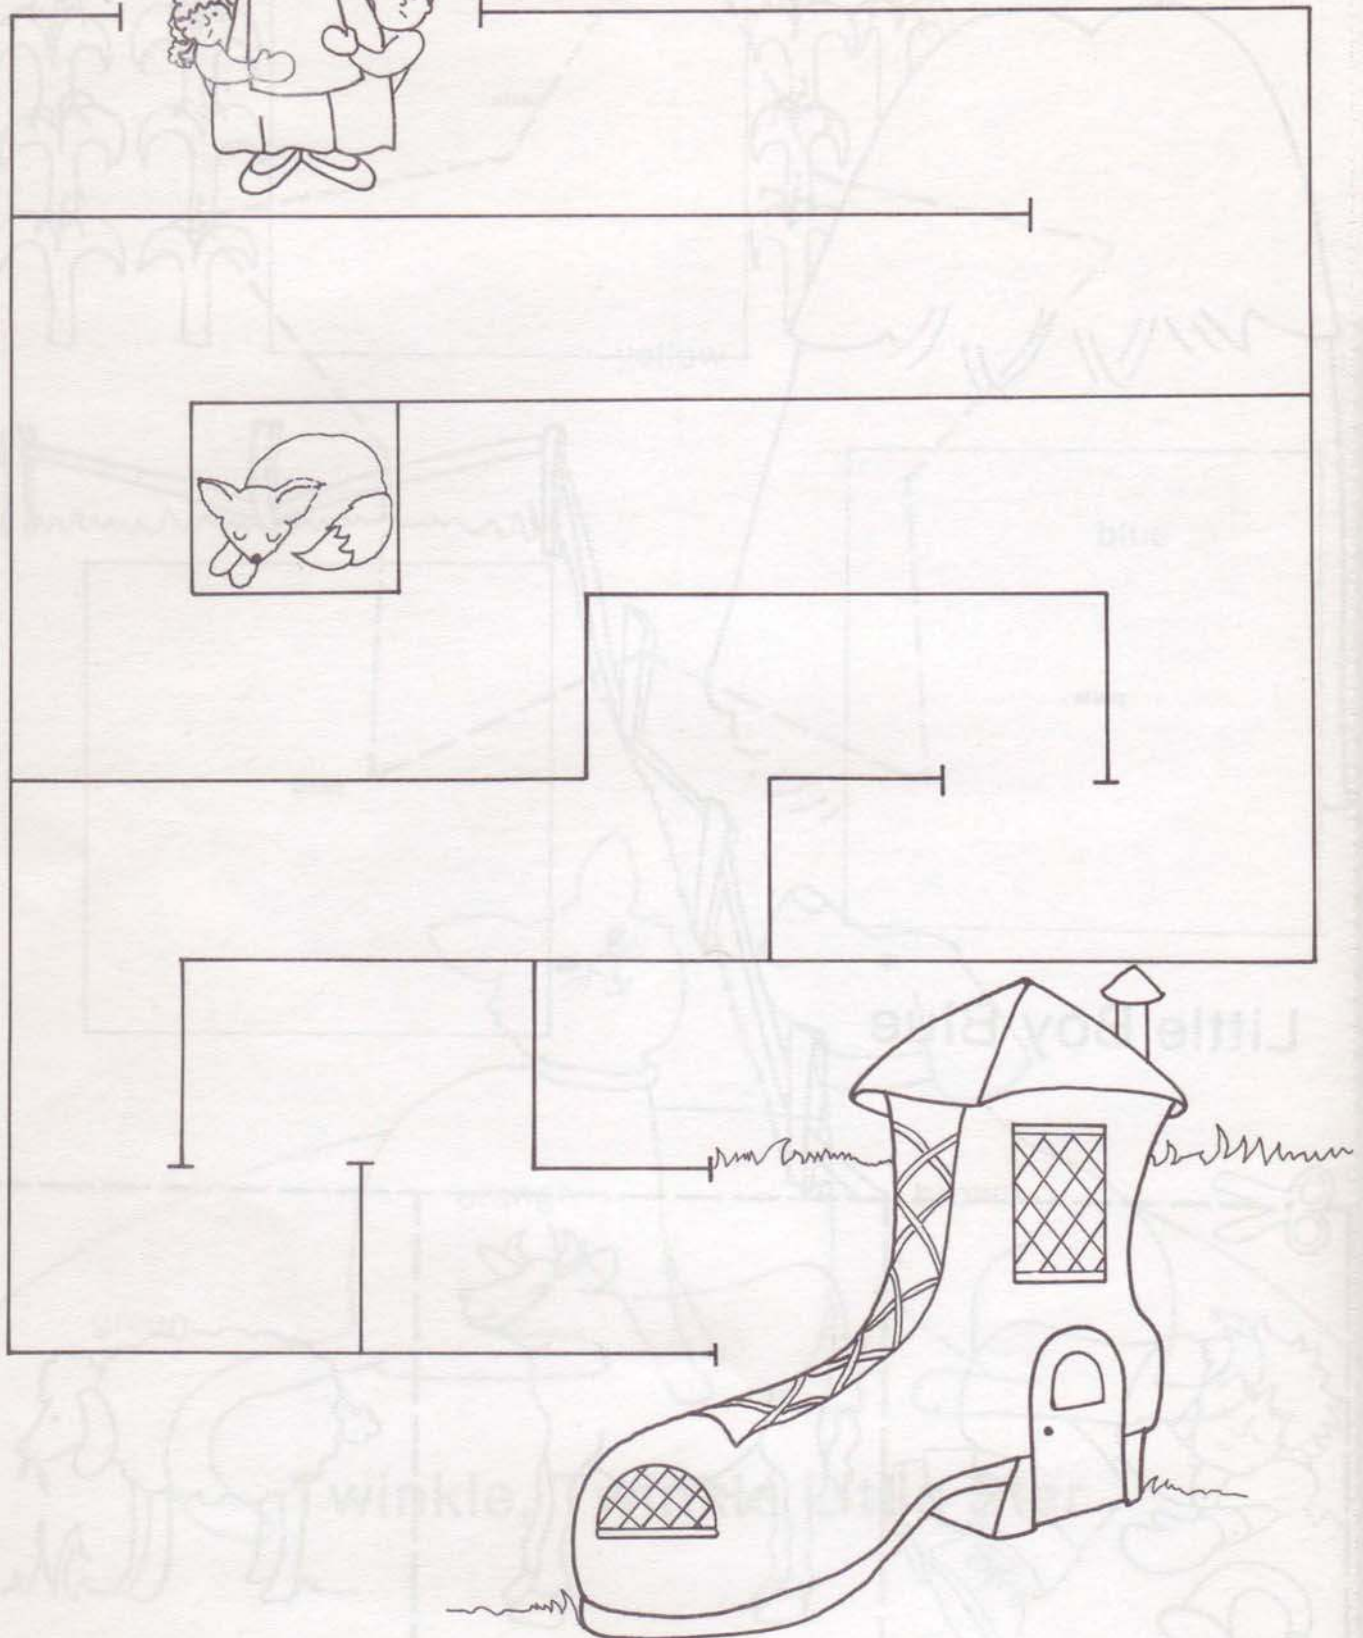

Little Boy Blue

Teacher:

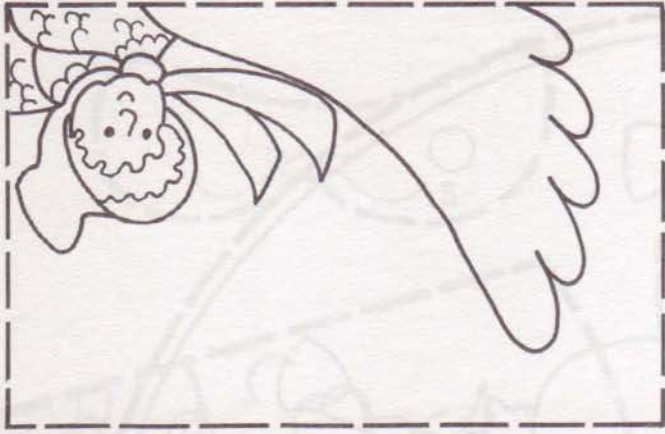

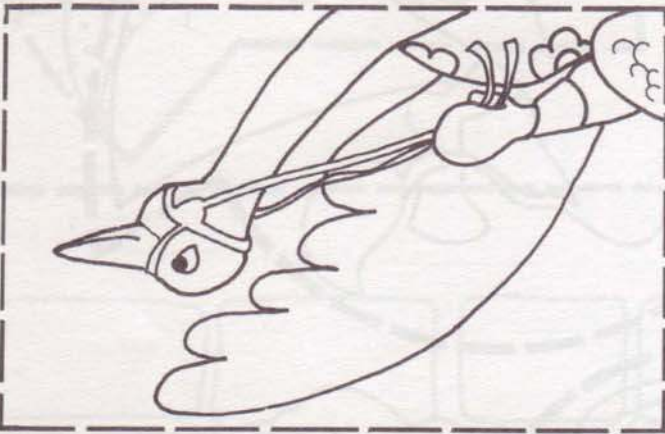

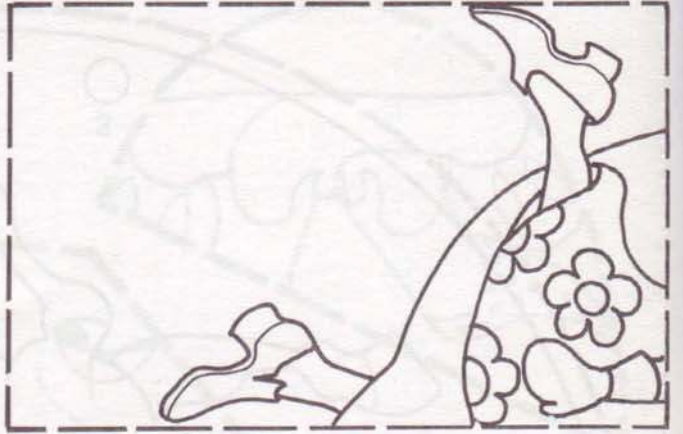

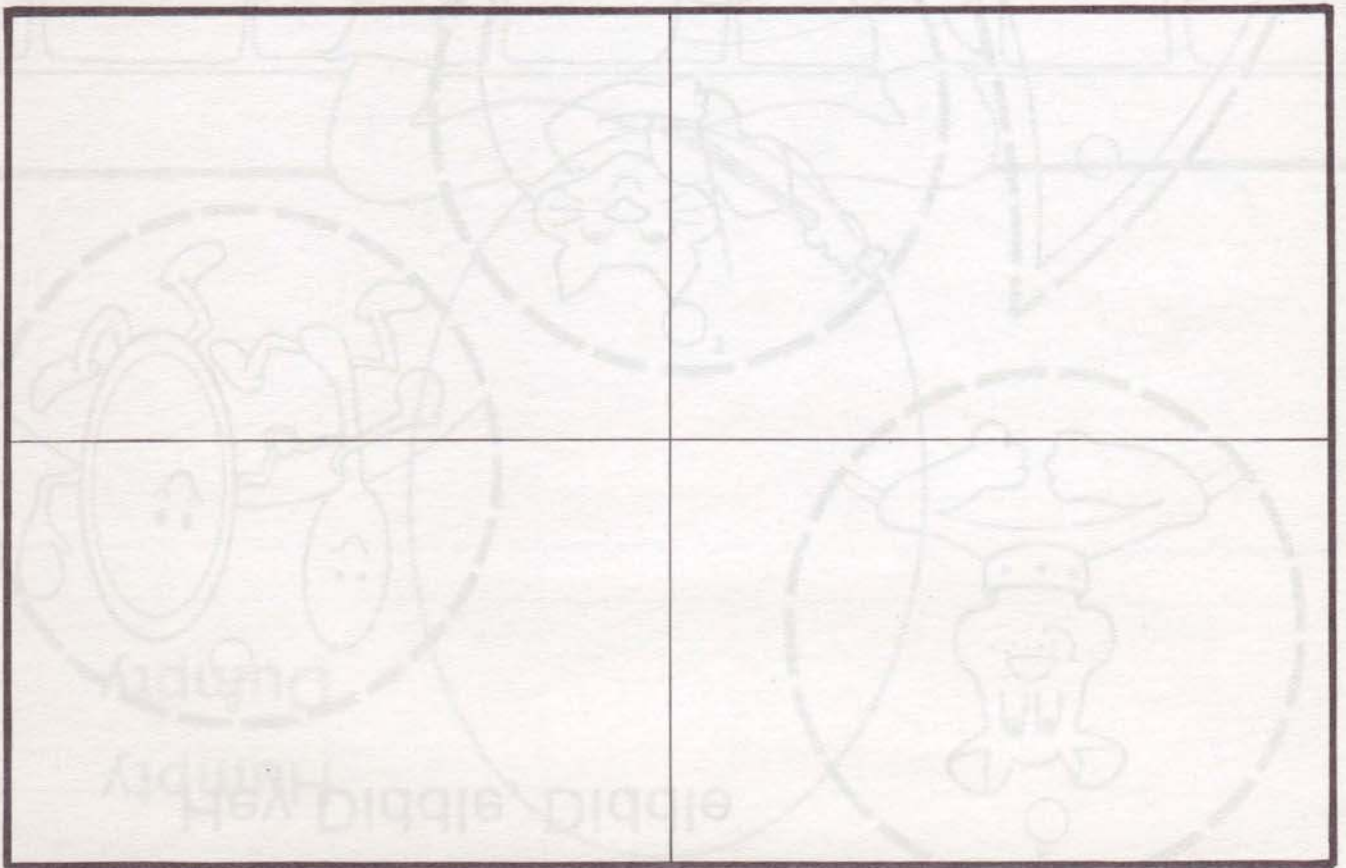

Children travel through the maze to help the Old Woman reach home.

Old Woman Who Lived In A Shoe

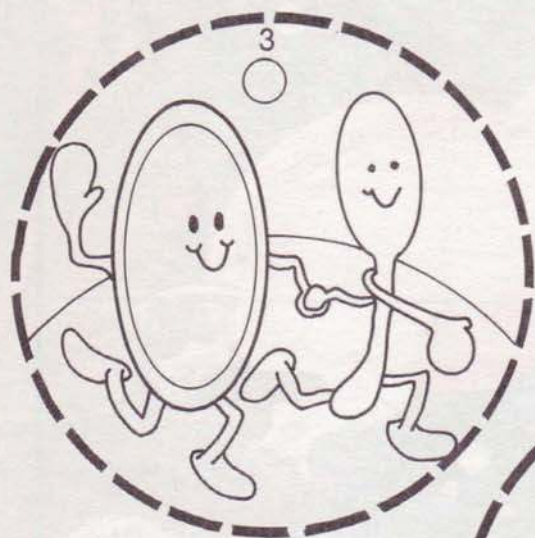

Teacher: Children cut out and paste
Mother Goose in the box.

Old Mother Goose

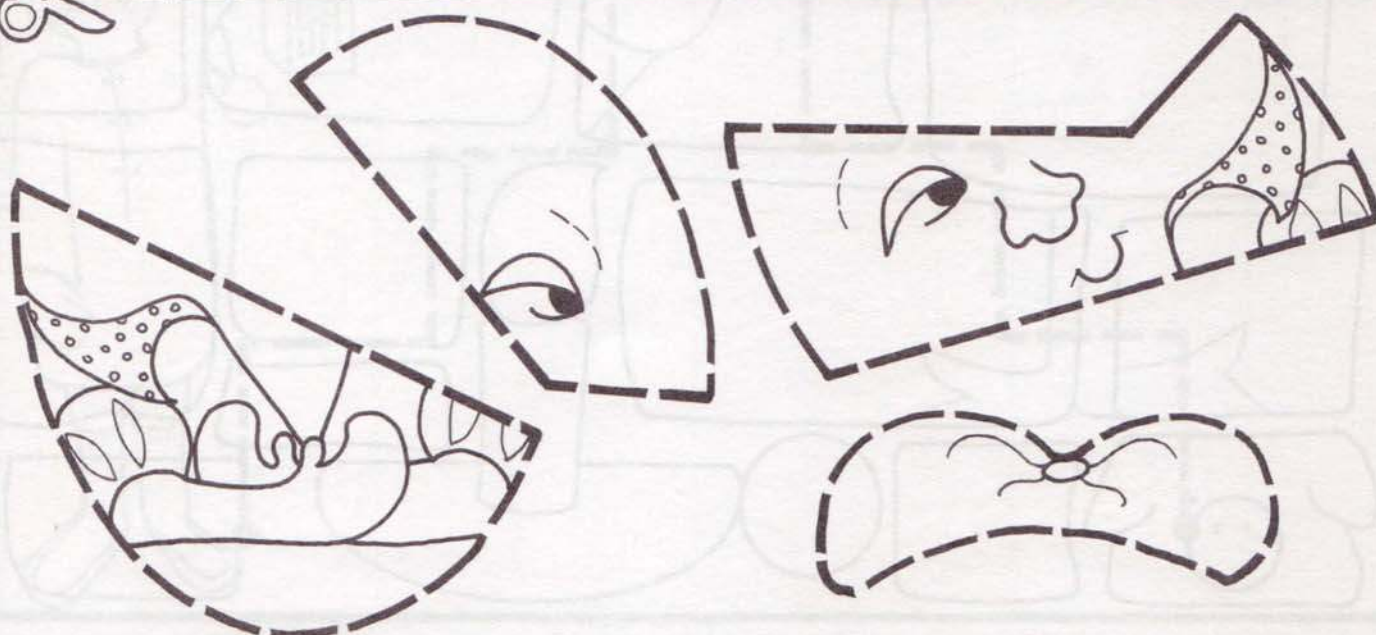

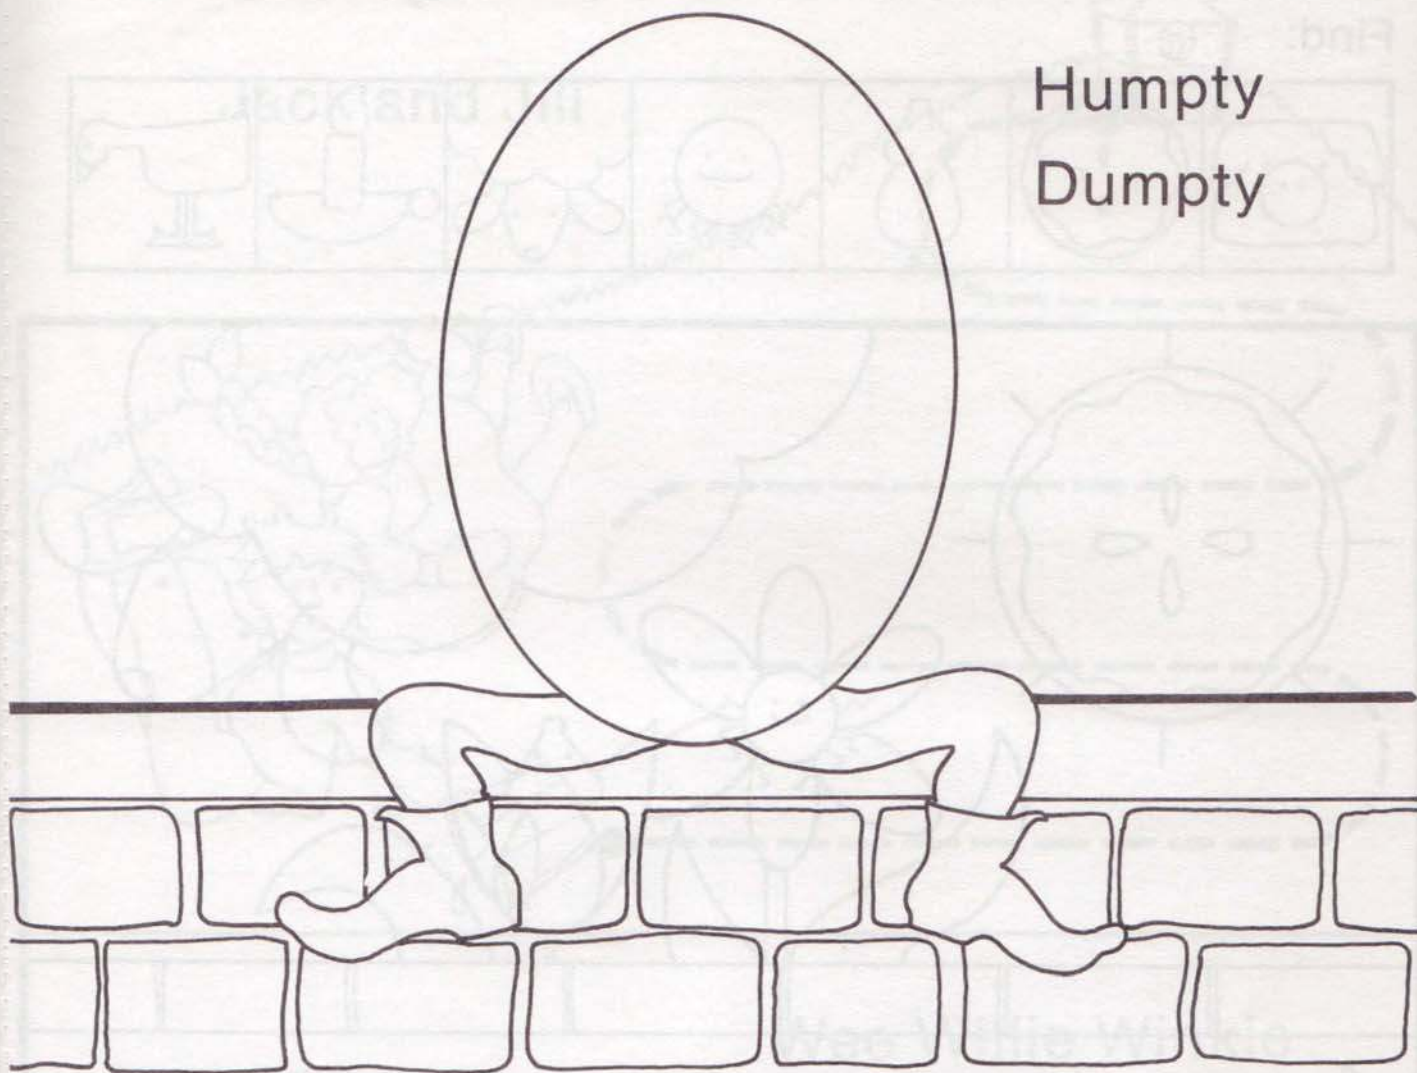

Teacher: Children color and cut out all the pieces. Make holes with a hole punch and attach pieces with string to create a mobile.

Hey Diddle, Diddle

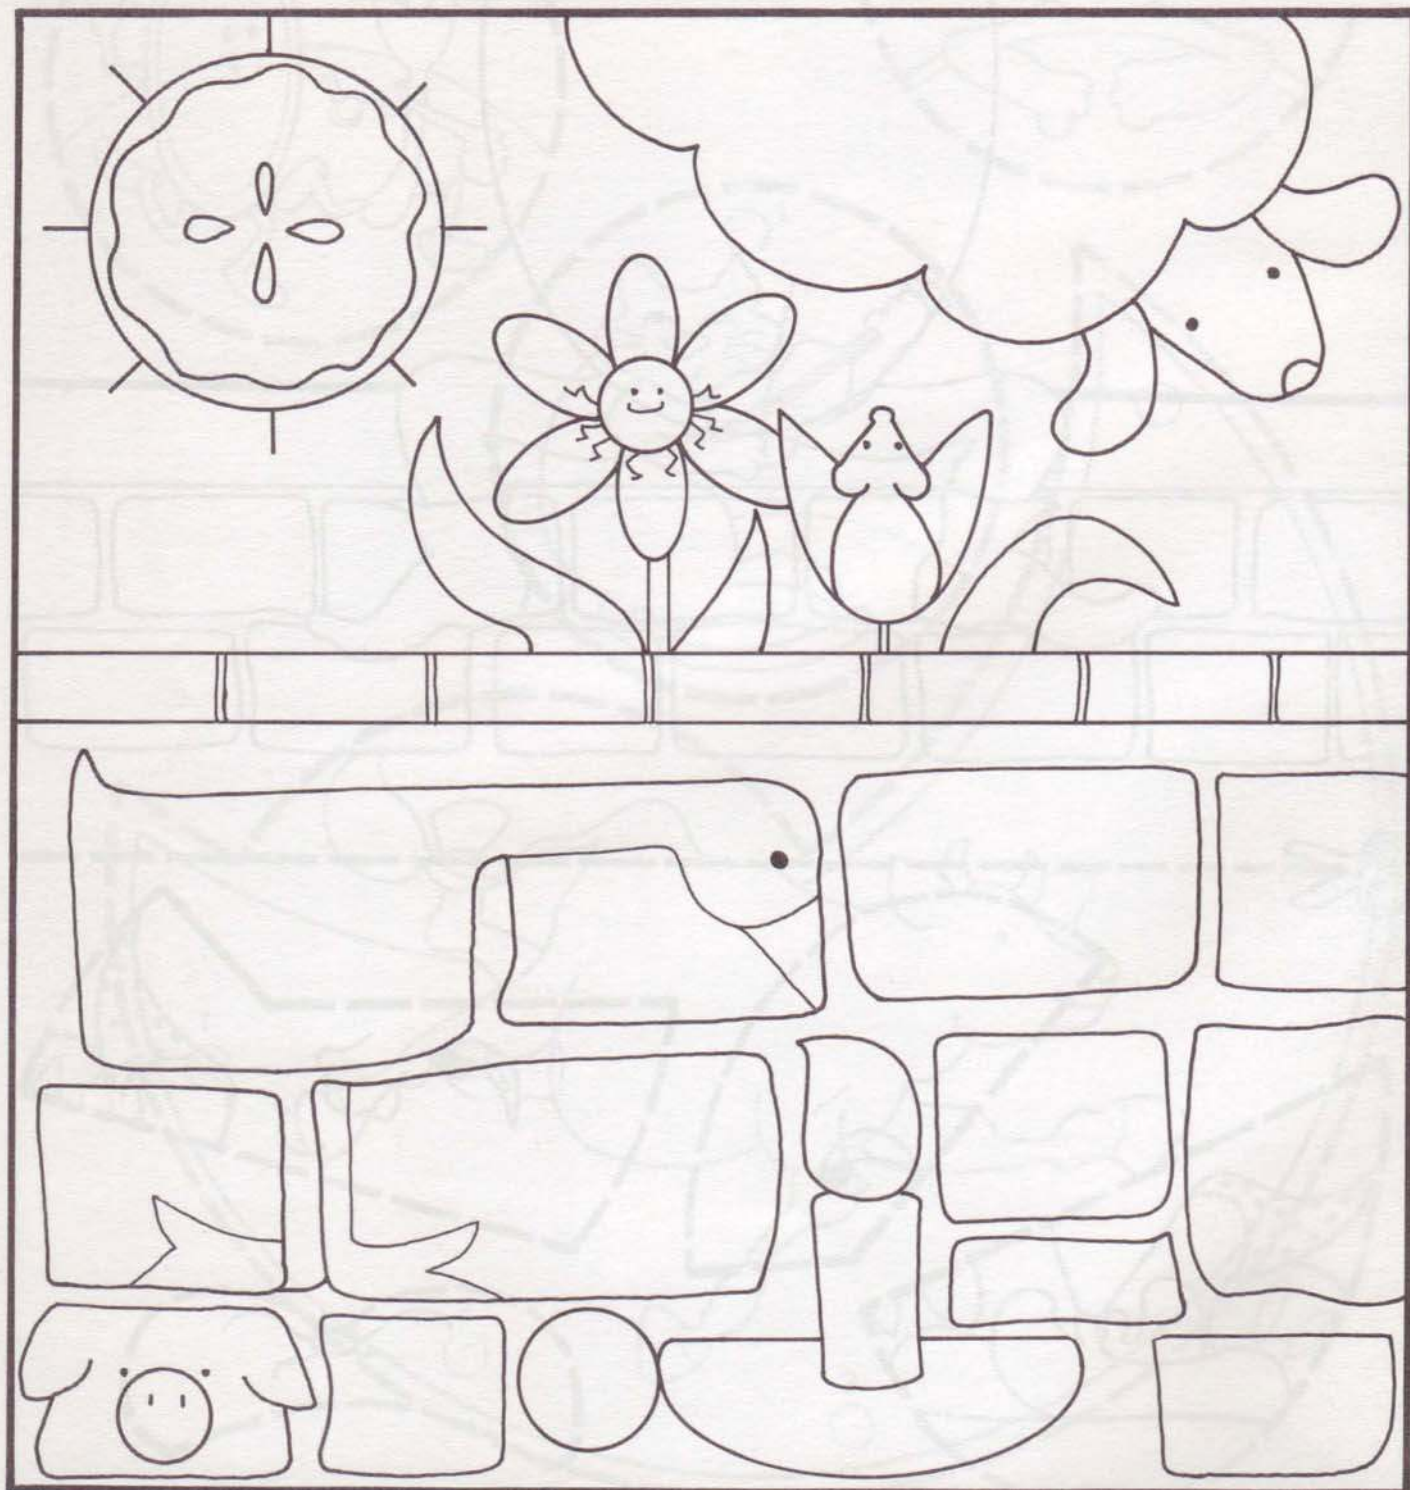

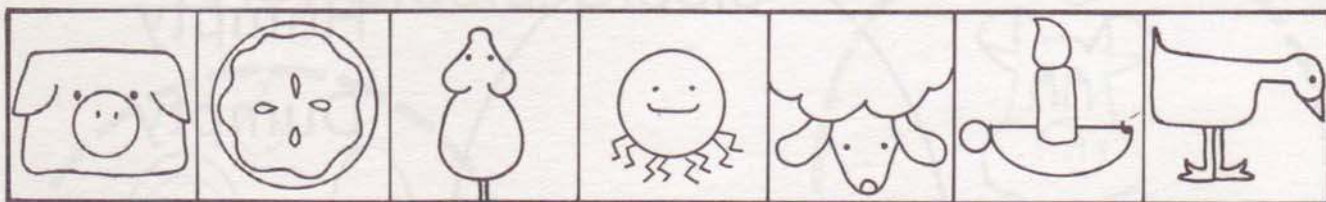

Teacher: Children cut out the puzzle pieces and paste them together to make Humpty Dumpty on his wall. Paste his hat on his head.

Humpty Dumpty

Teacher: Children look for the object hidden in the picture. They may X the objects or color them.

Find:

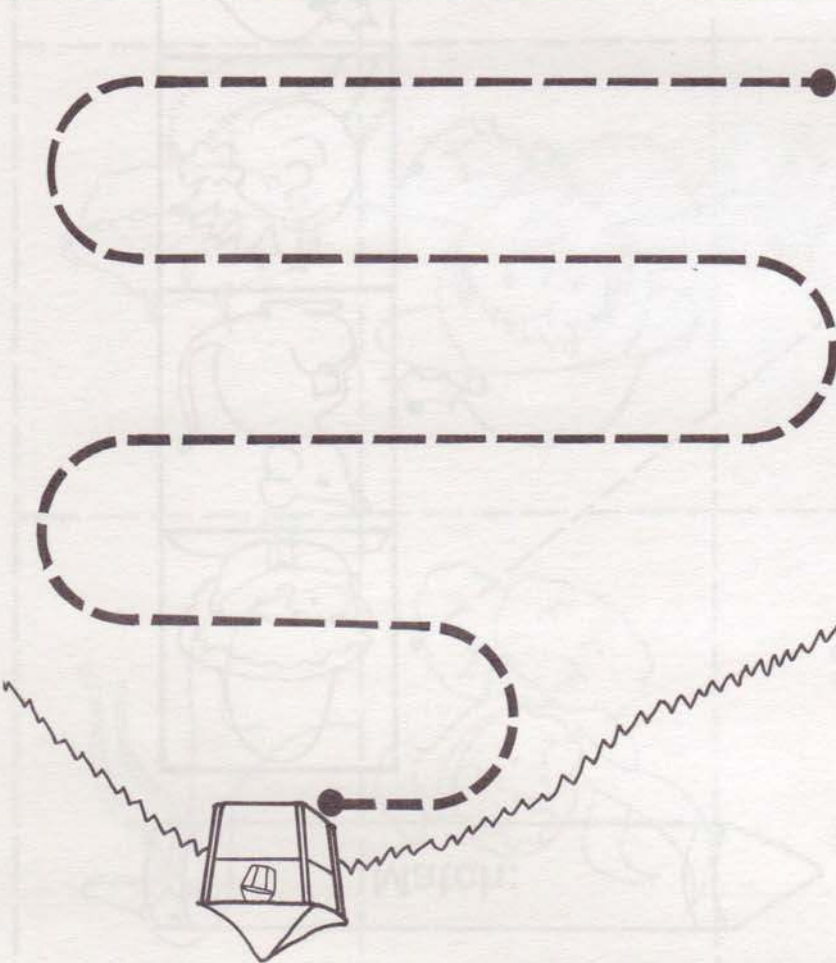

Wee Willie Winkie

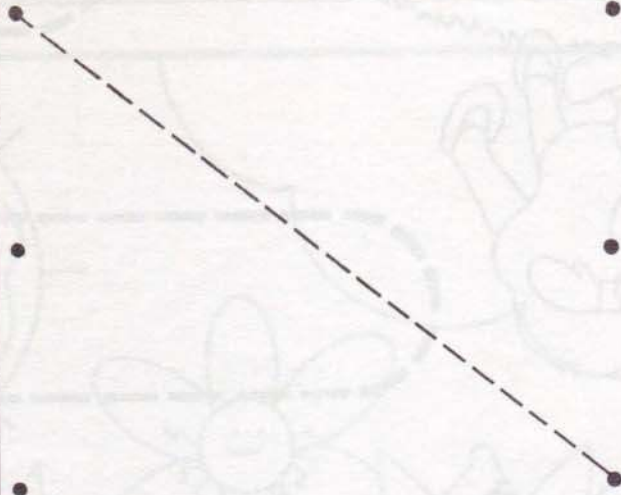

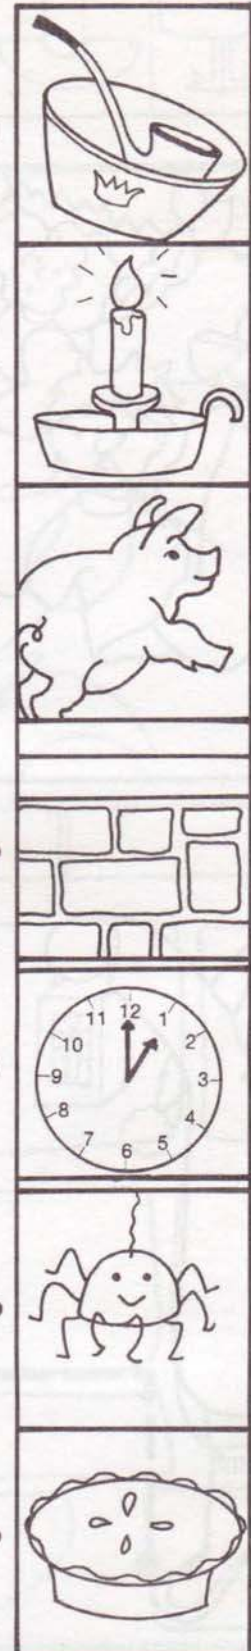

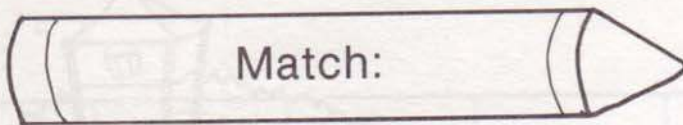

Jack and Jill

Teacher: Children trace Jack's tail and Willie's run through the town.

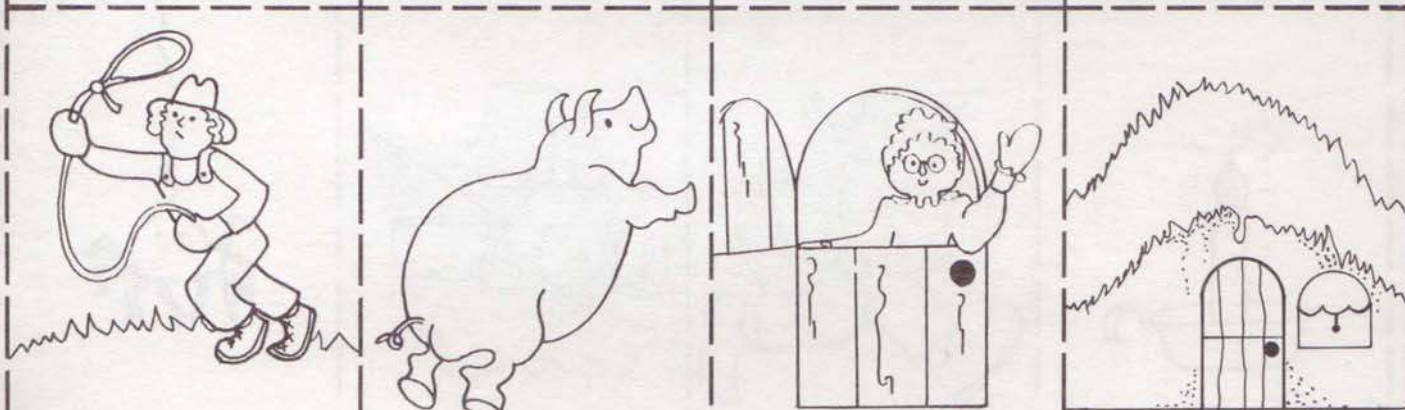

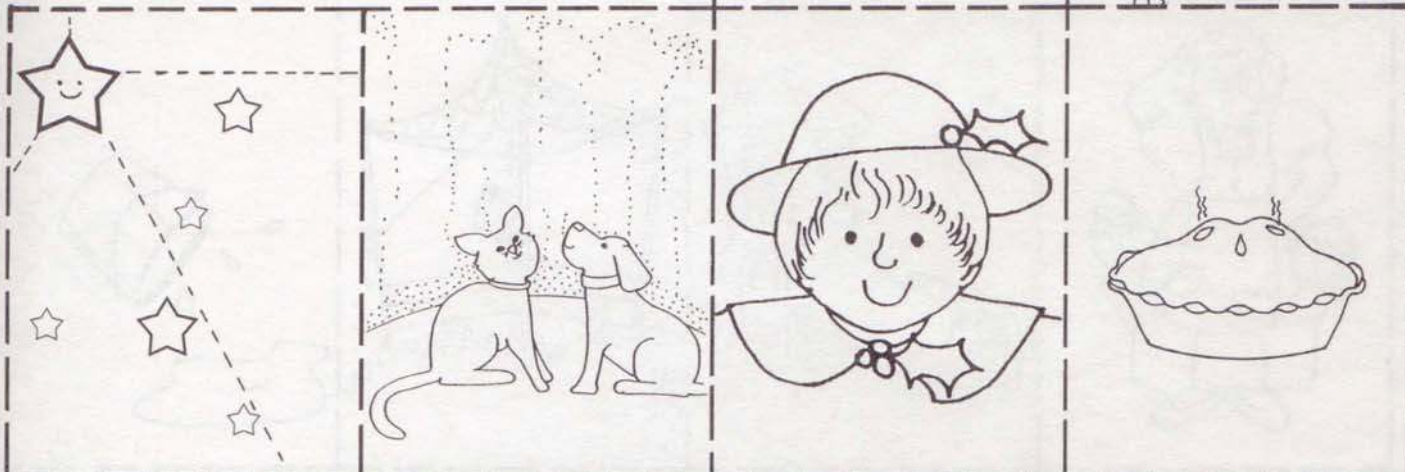

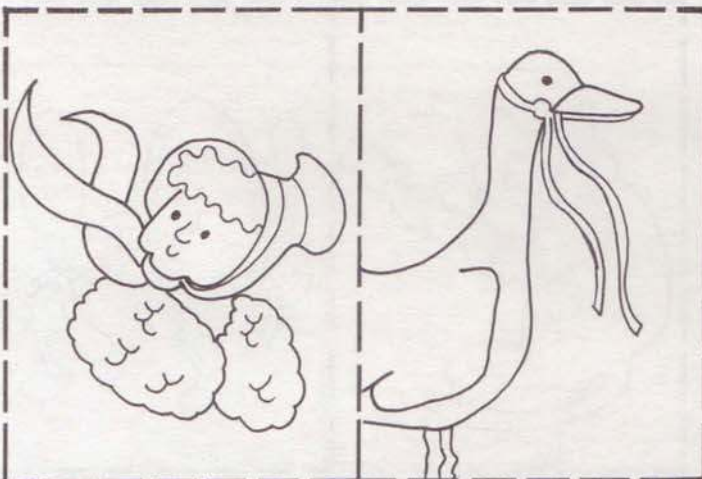

Teacher: Children draw a line to match the character and an object from his poem.
